AI Financial Analysis

Spending Analysis

Your spending is significantly exceeding your income, primarily due to a substantial amount allocated to entertainment (■7,500.00). This has led to a deficit of ■4,850.00, which is unsustainable in the long run.

Tips to Improve Savings

1. Reduce Entertainment Expenses: Aim to cut your entertainment budget drastically. Consider free or low-cost options like community events or outdoor activities. Set a new entertainment budget of ■500.00 per month.

2. Track All Expenses: Start keeping a detailed record of your daily expenses to identify other areas where you could cut back, such as food or transportation. Use apps or simple spreadsheets to make this easier.

3. Create a Monthly Budget: Allocate your income into necessary categories (e.g., essentials, savings, entertainment) and stick to it. A budget will help you prioritize needs over wants and avoid overspending.

Progress Toward Savings Goal

You currently have ■7,000.00 in savings, but your goal is ■13,500.00. With your current spending pattern, reaching your goal will be challenging. Focus on saving more by following the tips above.

Stay positive—every small change you make today can lead to a brighter financial future tomorrow! You've got this!
